300-399	Graduate Courses - Doctoral Level
9000-9999	Professional Development Courses (post-baccalaureate professional development semester units of non-degree graduate level coursework - not applicable to degree programs).

School of Dentistry: Courses for the DDS degree are numbered according to academic year: first-year courses in the 100s, second-year-courses in the 200s, and third-year courses in the 300s. Graduate-level dental courses are numbered 400 for the first-year courses, 500 for second-year-courses, and 600 for third-year courses.
School of Law: Courses for professional and graduate law programs are numbered from 100s through 900s.

UNITS OF CREDIT
Semester - One unit generally represents one hour (50 minutes) per week of lecture, or three hours per week of laboratory work for one semester.
Semester – In the School of Law, one semester unit represents one hour (60 minutes) per week of instruction for one semester.
January Term (1992-1998) - Four units represent one month of instruction during January.
Quarter –In the School of Dentistry, the DDS, IDS, and dental residency programs operate on the quarter system. A quarter consists of 10 weeks of instruction and a week of examinations. Q indicates the length of a course in quarters. One unit of credit corresponds to 1 hour of lecture, 2 hours of laboratory or clinical work, or 3 hours of independent study per week.
